Welcome to BLOOM Festival

Celebrate - Innovate - Illuminate

BLOOM festival will be celebrating its fourth year in 2021, filling St Lucia, Gatton and Herston campuses with vibrant, innovative activities and celebrations for everyone to enjoy. Taking place from Saturday 16 to Sunday 31 October 2021, the festival will celebrate the UQ community during jacaranda season. Relax under your favourite Jacaranda trees, browse our light installations and interactive exhibits, enjoy live music and workshops and indulge in pop-up picnics and indigenous foods.

We can't wait to celebrate the most beautiful time of year with you.

Festival highlights

Opera by the Lake

Kick off BLOOM Festival with 'Australia's most beautiful voices' the 7 Sopranos, by the stunning UQ Lakes. Enjoy a night at the opera with food trucks and incredible vocals. Proceeds from the event will support deserving Duchesne College and UQ School of Music students. BYO is available.

Long Table Dinner

The Long Table Dinner is a dining experience like no other encompassing a spring-inspired meal, live entertainment and brilliant light display on Forgan Smith Lawns hosting 400 people.

Deadly Noize

Deadly Noize will shine a light on Australia's biggest Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander rising stars in the music scene. Turn the volume up with our Deadly Noize concert featuring Sachem, Tia Gostelow and Sycco with a beautiful backdrop of Forgan Smith light display.

Bush Foods Bloom

Enjoy a tasty bush food experience with Aunty Dale Chapman from My Dilly Bag and Three Little Birds. Taste crocodile sausages, lemon myrtle relish, wattle seed tiramisù and more! Dale will teach you about the food and beverages in front of you, while answering questions about the Indigenous bush foods industry.

Giving Day

Celebrate the generous contributions our UQ community have given that helps support thousands of students achieve their academic endeavours. Enjoy events and activities across all campuses while celebrating the art of giving back. Contributions and donations will also be accepted on the day.

What's on - BLOOM Online

There are a number of events, workshops, celebrations and activities you can enjoy online if you can't make it to campus! Join our online mixer to meet others from around the world while enjoying a live cooking class, facilitated games and trivia. Tune into From the Couch as the crew wrap up the year; hear an intimate performance from award winning, indigenous artist Ziggy Ramo; learn to make cocktails, lanterns, terrariums and so much more!

Cycle, walk or scoot around St Lucia campus to see the blossoming Jacarandas. Unwind under a tree, take the perfect selfie, stop for a picnic, or just enjoy a day out with friends. This is the most beautiful time of year to visit UQ so add it to your must see Jacaranda trails of Brisbane!

Jacaranda Lane

This laneway by UQ Lakes has the ability to draw crowds from all over QLD, earning it the unofficial title 'Jacaranda Lane'. Drop by St Lucia campus to enjoy the most picturesque spot on campus. Visit when the Jacarandas are in full BLOOM from early to late October.

BLOOM Illuminate

BLOOM is illuminating one of UQ's most iconic buildings - Forgan Smith this year. The light display will be the backdrop for all major events at this years BLOOM Festival and will be free for all to enjoy. Visit 18 October - 5 November, Forgan Smith Lawns, St Lucia campus.

Tunnel of Light

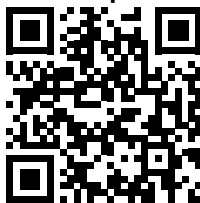

The tunnel of light will be an illuminated walkway on Upper Forgan Smith Lawns covered in lights and lanterns for the community to enjoy over a three week period. Visit: 18 October - 5 November at Forgan Smith Lawns St Lucia campus & Central Walway, Gatton campus

Getting around campus: There are a number of sustainable options for getting around campus including walking trails, bike trails and even mobility scooters!

Getting to UQ: There is plenty of public transport available including bus, ferry and taxi options. Parking is also available at each campus. Scan the QR code for more information.
