Unlock your potential

The 21st century world of work is continually changing, and many of us will have multiple careers during our lifetimes. Throughout Employability Week, you will learn more about career opportunities, engage meaningfully with employers, alumni and other industry partners in presentations and networking sessions, as well as participate in a wide suite of interactive workshops and talks that will empower you to take control of your career direction and unlock your future potential.

Navigating Employability Week

There are so many ways to engage with the programs and events that make up this year's Employability Week. This guide provides an overview of just some of the activities and sessions you could take part in. To see the full line up of activities, and handy guides on how to navigate the week, check out life.uq.edu.au/employability-week
